Minecraft Servers are great for those who want to play Minecraft with friends, as there is no limit on the number of players allowed and while there are limitations on the maximum number of villagers you can build, you can place practically anything. You will need a high-speed internet connection and a few more dedicated resources than your average computer user may have, so if you are running your server on a VPS or physical machine, it is recommended that you go with an account that offers reliable bandwidth with enough RAM and CPU to keep up with the demands of all players who are online at once.",

Realistic resource packs are a good option for adding in visual elements to your game. They will make the world more realistic and give it an old, natural look that may be pleasing to the eye. Other mods may override this however, so if you want your resource pack to be compatible with other mods, you should check each one before getting them listed on your server as addons.",

When creating a custom modpack for your server, it is generally okay to include builds from other popular servers or bases upon which other mods can be added. This will help add variety to your server and make it more interesting. Players will love to explore new areas and find things that have been added by other players. You can make your server unique and attract lots of new players by using this method.",
